

Società Libera

The COMMUNITIES OF THE OPPRESSED MINORITIES AND PEOPLES living in exile and the Liberal cultural Association SOCIETÀ LIBERA are promoting the

10th INTERNATIONAL MARCH FOR THE FREEDOM OF OPPRESSED MINORITIES AND PEOPLES

SATURDAY 21st OCTOBER 2017

ROME - 4 p.m.

PARIS - 2 p.m.

Routes will follow

FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE PERSON AND SELF DETERMINATION OF PEOPLES

To denounce the worsening condition of human rights in the world: hundreds of millions of people are currently denied fundamental freedoms and Peoples and Minorities are deprived of their right to self determination.

To shake up the Western World with its silence.

To demand the international institutions to make the defense of Human Rights a priority in international relations.

To ask the European Union to take a position about the defense of individual and Peoples' rights, establishing the European Day for the Freedom of Oppressed Minorities and Peoples.

This year in particular we will be marching

For the freedom of the Burmese, Cambodian, Korean, Haratin, Iranian, Khmer Kampuchean, Kurdish, Laotian, Mongolian, Syrian, Tibetan, Uyghur, Venezuelan and Vietnamese Peoples

To demand the Iranian Government to release Doctor Ahmadreza Djalali, detained in Teheran since April 24th, 2016 and sentenced to death; and the journalist Iraj Jamshidi, who was awarded the International Award for Freedom by Società Libera in 2006

To denounce the action of the Italian Embassy in India, which denied a visa to three Tibetan monks, political refugees, invited by a Buddhist centre in Pomaia in Tuscany.
