The COMMUNITIES OF THE OPPRESSED MINORITIES AND PEOPLES living in exile and the Liberal cultural Association SOCIETÀ LIBERA are promoting the

10th INTERNATIONAL MARCH FOR THE FREEDOM OF OPPRESSED MINORITIES AND PEOPLES SATURDAY 21st OCTOBER 2017

ROME - 4 p.m.

from Piazza Mazzini to Castel Sant'Angelo

PARIS - 2 p.m.

from Statue de la Liberté Pont de Grenelle to Esplanade du Trocadéro

FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE PERSON AND SELF DETERMINATION OF PEOPLES

To denounce the worsening of the condition of human rights in the world: hundreds of millions of people are denied fundamental freedoms and Peoples and Minorities are deprived of their right to self determination.

To shake up the Western World with its silence.

To demand the international institutions to make the defense of Human Rights a priority in international relations.

To ask the European Union to take a position about the defense of individual and Peoples' rights, establishing the European Day for the Freedom of Oppressed Minorities and Peoples.

This year in particular we will be marching

For the freedom of the Armenian, Burmese, Cambodian, Corean, Harratin, Iranian, Khmer Kampuchean, Kurdish, Laotian, Mongolian, Syrian, Tibetan, Uyghur, Venezuelan and Vietnamese Peoples

To demand the Iranian Government to release Doctor Ahmadreza Djalali, detained in Teheran since April 24th, 2016 and sentenced to death, and the journalist Iraj Jamshidi, who was awarded the International Award to Freedom by Società Libera in 2006

To denounce that the Italian Embassy in India denied a visa to three Tibetan monks, political refugees and invited by a Buddhist centre in Pomaia in Tuscany.

In Rome, the March will be led by Rebiya Kadeer, the spiritual leader of the Uyghur People.
